Property Description

 Price Guide £550,000 - £575,000 ***

* Vendor Suited To A Vacant Property *

Nestled in the picturesque village of Milborne St. Andrew, this Grade II Listed former farmhouse exudes timeless elegance. Offering approximately 3158sqft of luxurious living space, meticulously crafted for comfort and sophistication.

Steeped in history, believed built in 1804, with hints of earlier origins. The striking front façade features flint and stone banding under a traditional thatched roof, evoking rustic grandeur.

Upon entering, there is a seamless fusion of period features and contemporary stylish interior.

The residence boasts four reception rooms, each with its own unique character and charm. The heart of the home lies in the spacious kitchen, where culinary delights come to life amidst the warmth of an Aga stove, a central island, and French doors that beckon to the enchanting rear garden. Adjacent to the kitchen, a walk-in pantry and a separate utility room provide convenient storage solutions, further on is another room offering the perfect space for a home office or personal sanctuary.

The staircase to the first floor reveals three generously proportioned double bedrooms, including one with an en-suite bathroom. A stunning family bathroom, with a classic roll-top bath and a separate shower cubicle. There is a wrought iron spiral staircase that leads to the second floor, where a charming library area awaits, alongside a spacious 20-foot guest bedroom complete with its own en-suite facilities.

The rear garden has been designed to evoke the charm of a cottage-style courtyard. This outdoor space offers a tranquil sanctuary for alfresco dining, entertaining, or simply watching the wildlife.

Completing this property there is off-road parking and a good sized shed to the side of the property.
