Property Description

**Guide Price £800,000 - £850,000 ****

Experience modern living at its finest with this stunning chalet-style property, offering three/four bedrooms, nestled in the highly coveted Wick Village, close to Hengistbury Head. Meticulously finished to an exceptional standard, this home embodies contemporary elegance and functionality.

One of the main features of this property is the lounge with its five-panelled bi-folding doors that open onto a south-facing garden, blending indoor and outdoor living with the added benefit of an electric awning to provide shade if required. The kitchen is a highlight with a central island featuring a bespoke American white oak breakfast bar, quartz worktops, and 'Neff' appliances. A utility room off the kitchen offers an extension to the kitchen with fridge/freezer, washing machine and dishwasher as well as additional storage for the property. To serve the ground floor bedroom three there is a modern shower room with double walk-in shower and motion sensor lighting. The versatile dining room can be used as a fourth bedroom if needed. Glass casement walls throughout the ground floor ensure plenty of natural light fills the property.

On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, each with ample built in wardrobe space and modern decor. One of the bedrooms features a freestanding 'Villeroy & Boch' bath with integrated controls and shower hose, adding a touch of luxury.

The rear garden is designed for easy upkeep, featuring an expansive patio/barbecue area with a section of loose stone, all bordered by a variety of plants and shrubs giving privacy. A summer house, equipped with power, offers a perfect space for relaxing or as a workspace. The front garden is predominantly laid to provide off-road parking with additional space for a motorhome or boat, complemented by landscaped borders.
