Property Description

A beautiful Grade II Listed 6 Bedroom Riverside Home in a Desirable Village close to the Coast.

Flanked by the tranquil River Wey, Greystones is a truly enchanting six-bedroom period home, offering wonderful views across Dorset countryside with gardens extending to just under an acre. The property is steeped in history and brimming with character, even hosting King George III when he visited the neighboring Spa House.

Dating back centuries and owned by the same family for generations, Greystones is a rare gem, seamlessly blending period charm with versatile modern living. Attached to one side of an attractive row of cottages, the home is arranged over three floors, featuring two staircases and generously proportioned rooms bathed in natural light.

The impressive reception hall immediately sets the tone, with a flagstone floor and an original fireplace creating a warm welcome. Leading from here are the elegant drawing room formerly a coach house, and the formal dining room, a sophisticated entertaining space complete with a feature fireplace, built-in china cabinet, and a picturesque window framing the river views.

The kitchen is fitted with a classic cream AGA, is beautifully positioned to enjoy the ever-changing scenery of the river and surrounding countryside, you can even see the ducks swimming past the kitchen window on a spring morning, the kitchen then extends into a snug/breakfast room, in turn leading to a utility/boot room which offers convenient access to the garden.

The first floor has a spacious landing which leads to the principal bedroom, two further double bedrooms, and a large family bathroom. The second floor mirrors this layout, providing three additional double bedrooms and another family bathroom. Every bedroom enjoys its own unique and captivating outlook, whether across rolling countryside or the river. From bedroom six a separate staircase leads directly to the kitchen.
