Property Description

 Guide Price £900,000 - £925,000 **

Agents Note: Flooring has not yet been fitted, allowing the buyer to choose their preferred finish from the seller's options.

DRIFT is a beautifully renovated detached coastal home with sea views offering contemporary design, premium finishes and superbly planned accommodation, directly opposite Southbourne's award-winning Blue Flag beach with miles of coastline on the doorstep.

The bright entrance hall welcomes you into a spacious ground floor comprising of four double bedrooms and a further single versatile fifth room ideal as a study, nursery, or dressing room. The two rear doubles each enjoy fitted wardrobes and luxury en-suite shower rooms finished with porcelain tiling. A stylish family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms, while a practical utility room offers space for washing machine & tumble dryer with wall and base units. The pressurised hot-water system is discreetly housed under the stairs.

A glass-balustrade staircase rises to the impressive first-floor living space designed for light and openness. The stunning kitchen/dining room features sleek cabinetry, granite worktops, integrated appliances, a walk-in pantry and adjacent cloakroom. There is ample space for family dining and casual seating. Inset ceiling speakers (with individual control, DAB radio & Bluetooth) serve both this area and the main reception room.

A large internal picture window connects the two spaces, flooding both with natural light. The principal reception room opens via sliding doors onto a recessed balcony with porcelain-tiled floor and uninterrupted sea views.

To the rear, a wide terrace leads to a new level lawn enclosed by timber fencing, with young trees and planting for future privacy. At the front there is generous off-road parking for several vehicles and a garage with electric roller door (plus rear double doors to the garden), together with sensor lighting and provision for an EV charging point.
